ORDINANCE PASSED FORBIDDING THE NOISE MAKERS ON AUTOS.

VEHICLE TAXES FIXED

Council Passed Ordinance Which Names the Rate for Public and Private Conveyances.

At the city council meeting Monday evening two ordinances were adopted, one providing for a vehicle license tax and the other providing for any useless or unnecessary noise in the operation of the automobiles.

The vehicle license tax is on all vehicles operated on streets, avenues or alleys of the city, whether used for hire or private use or pleasure, either propelled by horse power or other domestic animals or by steam, electricity, gasoline, denatured alcohol or other like motive power, owned or operated within the city.

The following is the schedule of the tax:

On all omnibuses for transportation of passengers for hire, $3 per day, $10 per year.

On autos, motor wagons or buses or mechanically propelled vehicles for transportation of passengers for hire, $3 per day, $10 per year.

On autos or motor wagons not for freight or passengers for hire, having a rate of less than 12 horse power, $1 a year; a rating of 12 horses and less than 24, $2 a year; a rating of 24 horse power or less than 36, $4; a rating of 36 or less than 48, $6; a rating of 48 horse power or less than 60, $7; a rating of 60 horse power or less than 72, $9 a year; a rating of 72 horse power and more, $11 a year. This tax is to be paid annually, and the rating of the horse power of automobiles will be ascertained by applicant exhibiting to city collector the certificate of registration received from the secretary of state showing the number of horse power.

On dray wagons, transfer wagons moving vans, baggage, express or ice, coal, lumber, wood, hay, sand, gravel, crushed rock, cinders, brick, stone, lime cement, tombstones, dirt and the like, whether used for hire or private use or whether by horse or motor power, $5 a year.

On all of the wagons in the above section drawn by one horse, the tax will be $2.50 a year.

On all dray or job wagons for petty odd jobs of miscellaneous hauling, the tax, when drawn by two horses, $3 a year; when drawn by one horse, $1.50 a year.

On light delivery wagons such as for groceries, hardware, laundry, baking dry goods, beer or other liquors, meats, furniture, organs, pianos, poultry, produce, milk, cream, plumbing supplies, feed, whether by domestic animals or motor power, $3 a year, when two horses are used; when drawn by one horse, $1.50 a year.

On tank wagons, for coal oil, kerosene, gasoline or water, when drawn by two horses, $5 a year; when drawn by one horse, $2.50 a year.

On all popcorn, lunch and peanut wagons, $5 a year.

On all ambulances and hearses, $1.50 a year.

On all motor cycles or vehicles, $5 a year.

On all vehicles, such as carriages, surreys, traps or drummer wagons, two seats, livery or private, $2; one seat, $1 a year.

On two-wheeled vehicles, gigs, carts or breaking carts, $1 a year.

On all other vehicles not specified in the above sections, $5 a year. No tax is on sleds or sleighs, or on any wagon driven by the postal department or its agents or mail carriers.

The tax will be collected July 1 of each year and will be collected by the city collector. Each person paying such tax will receive a metallic license tag, which will be put at the rear or side of vehicles. The money derived from this tax will go into the street fund, and will be spent for the maintenance, cleaning and repairing of the city streets. For violation of the ordinance the penalty is not less than $2 or more than $100 fine.

The other ordinance passed by the council provided that a person operating any motor vehicle shall do so without making any useless or unnecessary noise, and shall not use any freak horn or other unusual freakish sounding device on said machines, nor shall any person operating such motor vehicles or motor cycles use the device commonly called the "cutout valve" on any such vehicle within the city.

William Jones of the Bell Telephone company addressed the board in regard to placing a Bell phone in the city hall and also a police call bell at the Ream hotel, free of charge. The city accepted the proposition.

The council adjourned Monday evening to meet on June 21.

IS A MYSTERY STILL

VILLISCA MURDER CASE STILL BAFFLES THE OFFICERS.

BLOOD HOUNDS ON TRAIL

Fololwed the Scent to River Bank, Where Trail Was Lost—Murder a Horrible Affair.

At a late hour this afternoon no arrest or new development had been made at Villisca, Ia., in the murder of the entire family of Joseph Moore and two young women guests, eight in all, which occurred Sunday night. The murderer killed every person in the house with an axe and escaped without discovery. It is apparent he had a key to the door of the Moore home, because all doors and windows were found locked.

Bloodhounds arrived at Villisca on a late Monday evening train and were immediately taken to the Moore home. Within ten minutes they found a scent which took them over a circuitous route to the edge of the town and thence to the banks of the Nodaway river. They were followed closely by their keepers.

Entering a deep woods along the river the hounds led their followers over several miles of rough timber land in the Nodaway bottoms.

After an hour the hounds returned to the river, where those following the dogs found fresh footprints in the soft muddy bank and leading to the river. Those following the trail took the hounds across the river, but were unable to find any trace of the fugitive on the other side. At midnight the posse returned to town and started afresh this morning, but had not found any trace of the fugitive.

The bloodhounds used are from Beatrice, Neb., and were used in this county on the Rasco case. Noffsinger was in charge of the dogs at Villisca.

Street of Lawrence, Kan., engineer of the City Water company, arrived in Maryville Tuesday noon and was in conference with the members of the board of public works at Manager Roseberry's office this afternoon. It is understood that the water company will not take one dollar less than $54,425 unless the board of arbitrators, if one should be selected, says the plant is worth less. But the board of public works is unwilling to leave the matter to a board of arbitration.

NEW FACTORY FOR CITY.

Curnutt & Lloyd to Manufacture Lightning Rods—Expect to Employ Several Men.

John Z. Curnutt and Eldon W. Lloyd are building and assembling machinery in the upper floor of The Democrat-Forum building, preparatory to manufacturing soft copper cable lightning rods of practically straight wires. The conducting wires are not twisted together, which detracts greatly from their carrying capacity, and the top is made of one piece of metal, without a joint, and is provided with multiple points on the terminal, and is constructed so it has twice the carrying capacity of another top now manufactured.

The machinery that is required to build the cable will be one of the marvels of the lightning rod world. Each part must be placed at the right time, as the straight wires are placed in depressions and held in place, and in order to make this so the cable will be taken off by a capsoin and not rolled over a drum, without regard to evenness, but will be the same size.

The system now has patents pending on it which will be on the market as soon as possible, but on account of the slowness of the assembling of the machinery it is not expected Messrs. Curnutt and Lloyd will put out much, if any, cable this summer. They expect to hire several men this fall.

ASKED HELP FOR VOLCANO VICTIMS

Secretary of Treasury Notified of Need of Assistance.

GREAT DEVASTATION PROBABLE

Steady Shower of Ashes Has Been Falling Since Thursday—Difficult to Reach People in Danger.

Juneau, Alaska, June 11.—The governor's office has received the following cablegram from United States Commissioner Finnegan at Seward:

"Officers urgently request dispatch of cutters to Cold Bay, Illamna, Kodiak and vicinity on account of volcanic disturbances. Great devastation probable."

The governor's office is endeavoring to reach the revenue cutters Manning and Tahoma through the Sitka wireless station, which is the most powerful station on the Pacific coast. So far communication has been impossible. It is believed, however, that both cutters have proceeded on a mission of relief. The secretary of the treasury was informed of the urgent need of assistance.

Chemists here, upon analyzing the volcanic ash which is descending all along the coast, say that it contains sulphuric acid. This explains the many compaints of headache.

Villages in Danger.

Seattle, Wash., June 11.—Definite news is anxiously awaited of conditions along the shores of Shelikof strait, where Katmai volcano has been spouting ashes and hot stones over the prosperous fishing villages and the agricultural land on Kodiak, Afognak and Raspberry islands.

Since the eruption begun Thursday afternoon there has been a constant hail of ashes and stones over a wide area, the finer particles having been carried by the wind as far as Sitka, 700 miles east of the volcano.

Communication Still Blocked

Dense clouds of smoke and ashes have turned day into night throughout a radius of 300 miles from Mount Katmai. The unnatural darkness and the stifling volcanic dust that fills the air combine to make navigation in the affected area hazardous and it will be difficult for rescuers to reach the fishermen and cannery employes along the shores of Shelikof strait while the volcano is in action.

In spite of the peril, the revenue cutter Manning already is groping her way toward the northwestern shore of Kodiak island. The Manning is equipped with wireless, but the atmospheric conditions impede communication.

Hirth Wins Vienna Air Race.

Vienna, June 11.—The aeroplane race from Berlin to this city, under the auspices of the Imperial Aviation society and the Austrian Aero club was won by Holmuth Hirth, German, carrying, as passenger, Lieut. Schoeller of the German army. Hirth, with his companion covered the distance (330 miles in a direct line) in 395 minutes (6 hours, 35 minutes) actual flying time.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT GIVE UP

PLAN TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR CONTESTED DELEGATES.

Struggle to be Carried Before Convention if Defeated by National Committee.

Chicago, June 11.—Here is the Roosevelt plan evolved by William Flinn of Pittsburg. It has been approved by all the members of the new steering committee which is here in charge of the Roosevelt ways and means and of which Flinn is chairman and Knox of Michigan is secretary.

Nothing will be conceded to the Taft forces. No matter what action the national committee may take the Roosevelt forces will insist that their contesting delegations be given seats in the convention hall. If the temporary roll of the national committee is accepted as the temporary roll of the convention it will not be until after a fight that will be worth watching.

But even defeat there and the Roosevelt leaders insist that they will not lose, but will win right off the reel, would not end the matter. Every contest that was brought before the national committee would be brought right back before the convention committee of credentials and fought out there. The Roosevelt forces believe that they can capture the committee on credentials and will bend every effort to do so. But if they cannot they will present a minority report in favor of all their delegates and try to stampede the convention to their claim. Only if they fail to do that will they withdraw from the convention as then constituted. They will not withdraw from the hall, but will go right ahead as though they had won the fight. They will name their permanent chairman, adopt their platform and nominate their national ticket which, unless some change should be necessary for strategic reasons, will be Roosevelt and Gov. Hiram Johnson of California.

Home Health Club

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER, LaPorte, Ind.

Night Sweats—Lately the Home Health club has had numerous applications for remedy for night sweats. This weakening annoyance is caused by the lack of vital force in the nerves of the skin, but it can be quickly stopped in a very simple way. The application of diluted acetic-acid to the skin is always safely cooling, besides, it brings increased activity and is altogether highly sanitary, properly used. In night sweats, however, there is far too much activity of the skin without aparent provocation. Hence the remedy must have other simple ingredients that will give new life and tone to the nerves underlying skin and premeating it; that will increase the general activity and prevent too rapid cooling. This result will be found in the simple combination of common table salt, cayenne pepper and vinegar. In the salt is the material that prevents the rapid evaporation of the vinegar and therefore prevents the unpleasant burning sensation that the pepper would induce. The pepper applied as will be here directed, is a tonic for the nerves, and in the acid is the cleaning, purifying agent that enables the pepper to penetrate the pores and scarf-skin in a manner to reach and stimulate the nerves as a tonic.

Take a tablespoonful of the salt, a teaspoonful of pulverized cayenne and a half pint of good vinegar. Mix these together in a half pint of boiling water. Let the mixture stand a few minutes then strain it so as to remove the granular substance of the pepper and with the liquid sponge the patient at bedtime.

Generally one treatment thus prescribed will stop the night sweats, but it is better for a more certain and effective cure to use the remedy for three or four more consecutive nights. The effect will be very gratifying.

Another simple and efficacious remedy for night sweats is to drink cold sage tea before retiring, using your own judgment as to strength and quantity. But the first named is more satisfactory and lasting.

Club Notes.

Batavia.—Dear Doctor: I have been troubled with my stomach for over two years. Am a farmer 28 years old; have good appetite, but stomach hurts for three hours after meals. Get very hungry and weak before the next meal. Stomach somewhat dilated at times, also constipated. R. C. W.

Some of the symptoms which you have described would indicate that the cause of your suffering is either worms or tapeworm. Would suggest that you fast for a couple of days and then take a good big dose of castor oil, then watch the stools for segment of tapeworm or ordinary round worms. If you will then write to me again stating just what you found to be the condition I will tell you what you should do to overcome either condition.

Kent.—Dear Doctor: I would like to ask you about eating eggs. They do not seem to agree with me. Have tried cooking them all sorts of ways, also raw with milk. I am inclined to constipation, if I get at all bilious. I feel after eating an egg as if all my nerves were tied up in knots and strained as hard as possible, then I have sick headache; sometimes the feeling does not come on for a day or two, and sometimes slightly after eating one egg, then if in a day or two I eat another it gets worse. When I eat deviled eggs they do not seem to disturb me. Do you supose there is any real reason why I cannot eat them? I like them, and they are so nourishing and convenient to use. I have been doctoring lately for kidney trouble, because my kidneys did not seem to eliminate properly; urine shows some uric acid crystals, but no sign of any other kidney trouble. I am 50 years old, unmarried, weigh 100 pounds, have fairly good appetite, but do not sleep very well; sallow complexion. MISS M. E. F.

Some persons cannot eat eggs, although some dietists claim that this condition is caused by idiosyncrasy only, but I am not inclined to agree with that opinion. I have seen cases in which people who have partaken of only a small particle of egg without their knowledge and the results have been very serious. The eggs seem to be veritable poison to some people.

I would suggst a milk, fruit and nut diet for a period of three months, after which you may be able to eat eggs with impunity. One dear old lady told me she did not have any impunity to eat with them. Possibly this difficulty will not appear to you.

While using fruit and milk diet you should also use an abundance of lemons and oranges. The acid of these fruits aid in digesting the milk.

I would suggest that you drink more water, sip it slowly, but do not drink anything while eating except milk, sipping it slowly also.

DEMOCRATIC ROW SEEMS LIKELY

Signs of Trouble Over Temporary Chairman at Baltimore.

CLARK MEN WANT OLLIE JAMES

Friends of Other Candidates Believe Move First Step in Plan to Control Convention and May Unite in Opposition.

Washington, June 11.—Signs of impending storm blackened the Democratic horizon, following an announcement from national Clark headquarters that Speaker Clark's friends expect Ollie James, of Kentucky, United States senator-elect, an avowed Clark man, to be elected temporary chairman of the Baltimore convention. The election of James has been made the first step in the Clark program for controlling the convention.

Among opponents of Clark the plan to allow James to deliver the "keynote speech" is viewed as an attempt to show Clark's controlling strength at the very outset. A test on the point seems certain to be forced in the Democratic national committee, and possibly in the convention itself, between Clark's forces on the one hand and the supporters of all the remaining presidential candidates on the other hand.

To Combine Against James.

Hearing James had been put forward as the Clark candidate, the backers of Gov. Woodrow Wilson strongly expressed a preference for Senator James O'Gorman of New York. Thomas M. Owen, manager of the Underwood headquarters, and the supporters of Representative Underwood generally, refused to discuss the matter, but there is every prospect that the Wilson and Underwood people, together with the Harmon, Marshall and Baldwin elements, and the New York influence, will unite for O'Gorman against James.

Fred T. Dubois, manager of the national Clark headquarters, sponsored the statement that Clark favors James, and Dubois felt confident enough to add the prediction that a majority of the Democratic national committee will propose James' name to the convention.

Will Show Clark's Strength.

The committee has the function of tentatively choosing the temporary chairman, subject to the approval of the delegates in the convention. If the committee recommends James the action will be considered as demonstrating Clark's control of that body.

Reports are circulated that the New York delegation is likely to back Wilson, and it was noted that Daniels, McGraw and Saulsbury all are Wilson men. The Clark people now believe they are powerful enough to designate the temporary chairman.

FARM ADVISER IDEA SPREADS

Pettis County Bureau of Agriculture Attracts Attention of Farm Publications.

Sedalia, Mo., June 11.—S. M. Jordan, manager of the Pettis county bureau of agriculture, left to spend two days in Blackwater township and one day at Longwood township conducting neighborhood farmers' institutes.

Mr. Jordan has a letter from the Omaha Bee asking for particlars as to how the Pettis county bureau of agriculture was organized, and about the Fourth of July farmers' institute to be held at the state fair grounds. The Country Gentleman also writes for details regarding the Pettis county idea and numerous individuals have written Mr. Jordan commending him for arranging a sane celebration of the Fourth of July.

RAILROAD BONUS WORTHLESS

Kansas Line Never Built as Agreed, Court Says Notes Need Not be Paid.

Hays City, Kan., June 11.—In the suit from Logan county, tried here all of last week, of the Scott City & Winona railroad against the Bilby Brothers for $20,000 for notes given as a bonus for building the road through the county, the jury, after 24 hours, brought in a verdict for the Bilbys, declaring the notes worthless, as the railroad had not built the line as agreed.

French Crew Strikes.

Havre, June 11.—Firemen, trimmers and sailors on the big new steamer France struck just as the ship was about to sail for New York. The boat had been held to accommodate a New York man and while it was waiting the men decided to strike for an increase in wages. Their demands were refused and the sailing of the ship has been postponed.

Killed New Father-in-Law.

Durant, Ok., June 11.—J. L. Robinson, proprietor of the Brick hotel at Caddo, Ok., was shot and killed in a drug store in that city by Ray McGee, a young farmer who married Robinson's daughter Saturday night. The father had bitterly opposed the match. McGee surrendered. He is in jail here.

PELLAGRA ON THE INCREASE

SPECIAL COMMISSION TO STUDY DISEASE IN SOUTH.

South Carolina Had 2,000 Cases Last Year—$15,000 Given for Research Work.

New York, June 11.—Equipped with a full field laboratory the Thompson-McFadden Pellagra commission will spend six months at Spartanburg, S. C., to study the puzzling disease which is increasing alarmingly in the Southern states.

An arrangement has also been made whereby patients will be brought to a hospital here throughout the summer for curative purposes and incidentally research work as to the course of treatment to which the disease best responds.

The personnel of the commission makes medical men await its report with the highest expectations. It includes Dr. Joseph F. Siler, captain medical corps, United States army, and Dr. Philip E. Garrison, past assistant surgeon, United States navy.

The expedition is made under the direction of the division of tropical medicines of the post-graduate laboratories.

The $15,000 necessary for expenses has been furnished by Col. Robert M. Thompson of this city, and John H. MacFadden of Philadelphia.

In South Carolina, last year, there were 2,000 cases of the disease reported, and there is every reason to believe that this number includes but a small percentage of the actual cases, due to the fact that reporting of cases is not compulsory upon physicians.

PROMOTER OF REBELLION HELD

Gonzales Enrile Arrested at El Paso for Embezzlement at Request of Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., June 11.—Gonzales Enrile, former chief promoter of the present revolution in Mexico and handler of its finances, was arrested here at the request of the Mexican government on a charge of embezzlement alleged to have been committed while he was consul under President Diaz at Clifton, Ariz.

Enrile was fleeing to the United States for medical treatment and was recognized and arrested in Juarez by Capt. Carlos Gonzales. He was taken before Col. Orozco, head of the garrison, who sentenced him to death. Gen. Orozco ordered his release. Gonzales was found dead later with a bullet in his brain. Friends declare he was killed by Enrile.

Enrile will be held here 40 days pending the arrival of extradition papers from the Mexican government.

PLAN TO DEPOSE MAJ. GEN. WOOD

Conference Report on Army Appropriation Bill Passed.

MEANS HOT FIGHT BEFORE HOUSE

Outcome of Enforced Retirement of Adjt. Gen. Ainsworth—Senator Warren Involved in Graft Charges.

Washington, June 11.—The conference report on the army appropriation bill, constituting one of the most remarkable pieces of legislation ever proposed in congress, was adopted by the senate by a record vote of 27 to 24.

The report is yet to be acted upon by the house, where a terrific fight is scheduled to take place over its adoption. If it is approved, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will be deprived of his position of chief of staff next March and no officer will be eligible to that appointment unless he has served ten years below the rank of brigadier general.

To Get Rid of Wood.

It is charged that the plan to get rid of Wood is the outcome of the row which resulted in the enforced retirement of Adjt. Gen. Ainsworth. Wood preferred charges of insubordination against Ainsworth, which were sustained by Secretary of War Stimson. Ainsworth was suspended and replied by retiring.

Ever since that time the friends of Ainsworth have been planning vengeance on Wood. Prominent among them has been Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee, and a member of the conference committee. To him is traced the origin of the provision relating to the chief of staff.

Charges Against Warren.

Other charges involve Senator Warren, whose son-in-law, Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing, now commanding the department of Mindanao, will be one of the small number of officials eligible to the position of chief of staff under the proposed restriction.

Senator Warren made no reply to these insinuations, except to say that he would be willing to vote for a resolution making Gen. Funston chief. The opponents of the proposition accepted this as a shrewd bluff, in-as-much as it could not be done.

Senator Warren was also instrumental in having the government purchase an expensive maneuver ground at Pole Mountain, Wyo., which is said to adjoin his sheep range. This was to be used for combined maneuvers of the regulars and militia, but the latter body is objecting to the plan on the ground that it will entail a useless expense of $20,000.

TO SETTLE ENGINEERS' STRIKE

Board of Arbitration Will Adjust Railroad Trouble on Eastern Roads.

Washington, June 11.—The board of arbitration to settle the differences between the railroads east of Chicago and their engineers which a few weeks ago threatened a serious strike, has been appointed by Chief Justice White, Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and Judge Knapp of the commerce court.

The board includes Oscar Strauss, former secretary of commerce and labor and P. H. Morrissey, former president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The issues affect 50 railroads, including the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio, east of Chicago, and north of the Ohio river. About 25,000 engineers are directly concerned.

Their tents are equipped for ten days' camp life, the time to be devoted to rowing, swimming, fishing, other outdoor sports and Bible study. Captains from the Salina Y. M. C. A. are in charge.

Hadley Goes to Chicago.

Jefferson City, June 11.—Gov. Hadley was indignant when he learned by telegraph of the substance of the grounds upon which the contest over delegates-at-large from this state to the Republican national convention are based. He left immediately for Chicago, where he will appear before the national committee in support of the Roosevelt delegates.

Russia Frees English Woman.

Warsaw, June 11.—As a result of British intervention the Russian emperor has issued a pardon to Miss Kate Malecka, the Englishwoman who recently was sentenced to four years' penal servitude because of her sympathy with the Polish revolutionists. The condition of the pardon is that she quit Russia forever.

CHEERING IN THE COMMONS

Various Kinds of Applause That Are to be Heard in the British Lower House.

The giving of applause in the British house of commons has attained the dignity of a science. A cheer from a single member is not infrequent, but has little significance unless it comes from an important personage. It is cheering in chorus that constitutes the British demonstration.

The tone of the cheering varies according to the temper of those who cheer. First, there is the hearty, full-voiced cheer of genuine approval, resounding, awakening the echoes and full of encouragement.

Next comes the low, subdued cheer, gradually spreading along all the benches, indicating the deep-seated agreement that does not seek vociferous or hilarious expression. This is employed either on solemn occasions or in moments of pathos or in acknowledgment of some confession on the part of an opponent.

Ironical cheering is often heard in the commons. The tone of sarcasm is always unmistakable. Often it is the greeting accorded to an argument or a statement by an opponent, for the formal denying of which there may not be an opportunity. It is hostile but frequently good natured enough.

As an intensification of this there is the sarcastic cheer, far sharper and more incisive. Mingled with laughter, it is, from the British standpoint, as disconcerting to the speaker as anything may well be.

MAORI GETS BRAVERY MEDAL

Australian Prisoner Rewarded for Saving the Life of Trooper Who Had Arrested Him.

For the first time since its institution says the London Daily Graphic, the Albert medal has been awarded to a Maori for gallantry in saving life, and the circumstances connected with this heroic act are so extraordinary that they are worth giving in full.

The recipient of the medal is an aboriginal native of the Roper River, Australia, named Neighbour, and the story of his brave act is given in the London Gazette in the notice announcing that the king has conferred the medal upon him.

On February 1, 1911, Neighbour, who had been placed under arrest, was being conveyed to the Roper River police station by a trooper of the police force named Johns. The Wilton river, which was found to be in full flood, had to be crossed, and Johns, who was on horseback, and was holding in his hand the neck chain by which Neighbour was secured, set the prisoner to swim in front of him, while he followed.

The horse got into difficulties in mid-stream, and before the trooper could clear himself he was kicked in the face by the animal and carried off by the current. Neighbour, instead of using the opportunity of making his escape, went to Johns' assistance and brought him ashore with great difficulty and at the risk of his own life.

Didn't Get the Present.

When a three-year-old girl who lives in Twenty-fourth street was advised by her mother that the next day was the day to go to Sunday school, she opened her large, blue eyes wide and rather forlornly remarked, "Every Sunday when they call my name I say 'Bresent,' but they haven't given it to me yet."

In the same Sunday school, not long ago, Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall was teaching the Sunbeam class a lesson on King David, and, endeavoring to see how much of her instruction of the previous Sunday had not been lost, asked: "Who was our lesson about last Sunday?" No answer. "Don't you remember the handsome young man we talked about?" After a few moments one little hand went up.

"Well, Mary?" asked Mrs. Marshall.

"I don't remember his name," said Mary, "but he was the boy that killed the janitor."—Indianapolis News.

Saved the Cat's Life.

A cat that was sunning itself on a platform before a store in Barclay street suddenly arose, stretched and walked to the exact middle of the street, where it lay down on the wooden pavement, relates the New York Tribune. A truck came rapidly down the street, but the driver saw the sleeping animal and turned his team aside. The cat never so much as wiggled an ear. The first vehicle was followed by a second, the driver again avoiding a fatality. Several wagons passed and the cat still remained unscathed. Then a man who had been watching from the sidewalk, picked a banana peel out of the gutter and threw it at the cat, waking it up and sending it scurrying to a nearby doorstep. "A cat has only nine lives," the man said, "and eight wagons have barely missed running over it. I thought I had better save its last life before the next truck passed."

Cyclist Chased by Lions.

Two motor cyclists, Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, the former a magistrate at Mzimba, while returning from the Zomba (Central Africa) coronation ceremonies, were chased for five miles by two lions, which showed no fear of the noise made by the engines, and galloped after the motor cyclists with evident determination to kill them.

The lions were finally outdistanced, and the riders, suffering greatly from nervous strain, reached their home in safety.—Livingstonia News.

WHEN WALKING WITH LADIES

Nearly Every Country Has Its Own Ideas as to Place of Male Escort.

Almost every country has its own fashions for men who walk with ladies on the public streets. In America and in England we walk on the side of the lady that is nearer the street. Many years ago when the streets were not kept as clean as they are now, any person walking on the outer edge of the pavements was likely to get well splashed with mud and rainwater, and that is why the gentlemen took that side, so as to save the ladies' fine clothes.

In some countries it is considered better for the gentleman to keep nearer the middle of the pavement in order to preserve the lady from jostling of persons going in the opposite direction in a crowded street. When it is the rule for every one to keep to the right those who are on the left of the two passing streams are continually being bumped into. In Germany the gentleman always keep on the same side of the lady, no matter which side of the street they may be on or which way they are going.

Money Value of Women.

If you are a married woman, and were asked to tell just what you were worth in hard cash to your husband, what figure would you name? The question is not a fanciful one by any means, but has been a subject of judicial consideration.

It was this way: The wife of an Iowa farmer bought a gallon of what purported to be kerosene, but which was afterward shown to be 21 per cent. gasoline. When the woman used some of it to start a fire with the stuff exploded, and she was burnt to death and her three children were seriously injured. The woman's husband sued the dealers for damages, and the jury awarded him $25 for the loss of his wife and $299.71 per child on account of injuries.

The defendants evidently thought that a woman was not worth $25, for they took an appeal from the verdict. The learned court, however, declined to look at it in that light, and the judgment was affirmed.—New York Mail.

DON'T USE CUTOUT

ORDINANCE PASSED FORBIDDING THE NOISE MAKERS ON AUTOS.

VEHICLE TAXES FIXED

Council Passed Ordinance Which Names the Rate for Public and Private Conveyances.

At the city council meeting Monday evening two ordinances were adopted, one providing for a vehicle license tax and the other providing for any useless or unnecessary noise in the operation of the automobiles.

The vehicle license tax is on all vehicles operated on streets, avenues or alleys of the city, whether used for hire or private use or pleasure, either propelled by horse power or other domestic animals or by steam, electricity, gasoline, denatured alcohol or other like motive power, owned or operated within the city.

The following is the schedule of the tax:

On all omnibuses for transportation of passengers for hire, $3 per day, $10 per year.

On autos, motor wagons or buses or mechanically propelled vehicles for transportation of passengers for hire, $3 per day, $10 per year.

On autos or motor wagons not for freight or passengers for hire, having a rate of less than 12 horse power, $1 a year; a rating of 12 horses and less than 24, $2 a year; a rating of 24 horse power or less than 36, $4; a rating of 36 or less than 48, $6; a rating of 48 horse power or less than 60, $7; a rating of 60 horse power or less than 72, $9 a year; a rating of 72 horse power and more, $11 a year. This tax is to be paid annually, and the rating of the horse power of automobiles will be ascertained by applicant exhibiting to city collector the certificate of registration received from the secretary of state showing the number of horse power.

On dray wagons, transfer wagons moving vans, baggage, express or ice, coal, lumber, wood, hay, sand, gravel, crushed rock, cinders, brick, stone, lime cement, tombstones, dirt and the like, whether used for hire or private use or whether by horse or motor power, $5 a year.

On all of the wagons in the above section drawn by one horse, the tax will be $2.50 a year.

On all dray or job wagons for petty odd jobs of miscellaneous hauling, the tax, when drawn by two horses, $3 a year; when drawn by one horse, $1.50 a year.

On light delivery wagons such as for groceries, hardware, laundry, baking dry goods, beer or other liquors, meats, furniture, organs, pianos, poultry, produce, milk, cream, plumbing supplies, feed, whether by domestic animals or motor power, $3 a year, when two horses are used; when drawn by one horse, $1.50 a year.

On tank wagons, for coal oil, kerosene, gasoline or water, when drawn by two horses, $5 a year; when drawn by one horse, $2.50 a year.

On all popcorn, lunch and peanut wagons, $5 a year.

On all ambulances and hearses, $1.50 a year.

On all motor cycles or vehicles, $5 a year.

On all vehicles, such as carriages, surreys, traps or drummer wagons, two seats, livery or private, $2; one seat, $1 a year.

On two-wheeled vehicles, gigs, carts or breaking carts, $1 a year.

On all other vehicles not specified in the above sections, $5 a year. No tax is on sleds or sleighs, or on any wagon driven by the postal department or its agents or mail carriers.

The tax will be collected July 1 of each year and will be collected by the city collector. Each person paying such tax will receive a metallic license tag, which will be put at the rear or side of vehicles. The money derived from this tax will go into the street fund, and will be spent for the maintenance, cleaning and repairing of the city streets. For violation of the ordinance the penalty is not less than $2 or more than $100 fine.

The other ordinance passed by the council provided that a person operating any motor vehicle shall do so without making any useless or unnecessary noise, and shall not use any freak horn or other unusual freakish sounding device on said machines, nor shall any person operating such motor vehicles or motor cycles use the device commonly called the "cutout valve" on any such vehicle within the city.

William Jones of the Bell Telephone company addressed the board in regard to placing a Bell phone in the city hall and also a police call bell at the Ream hotel, free of charge. The city accepted the proposition.

The council adjourned Monday evening to meet on June 21.

IS A MYSTERY STILL

VILLISCA MURDER CASE STILL BAFFLES THE OFFICERS.

BLOOD HOUNDS ON TRAIL

Fololwed the Scent to River Bank, Where Trail Was Lost—Murder a Horrible Affair.

At a late hour this afternoon no arrest or new development had been made at Villisca, Ia., in the murder of the entire family of Joseph Moore and two young women guests, eight in all, which occurred Sunday night. The murderer killed every person in the house with an axe and escaped without discovery. It is apparent he had a key to the door of the Moore home, because all doors and windows were found locked.

Bloodhounds arrived at Villisca on a late Monday evening train and were immediately taken to the Moore home. Within ten minutes they found a scent which took them over a circuitous route to the edge of the town and thence to the banks of the Nodaway river. They were followed closely by their keepers.

Entering a deep woods along the river the hounds led their followers over several miles of rough timber land in the Nodaway bottoms.

After an hour the hounds returned to the river, where those following the dogs found fresh footprints in the soft muddy bank and leading to the river. Those following the trail took the hounds across the river, but were unable to find any trace of the fugitive on the other side. At midnight the posse returned to town and started afresh this morning, but had not found any trace of the fugitive.

The bloodhounds used are from Beatrice, Neb., and were used in this county on the Rasco case. Noffsinger was in charge of the dogs at Villisca.

ENGINEER STREET HERE.

Arrived in the City Tuesday Noon for a Conference With the Board of Public Works.

E. L. Street of Lawrence, Kan., engineer of the City Water company, arrived in Maryville Tuesday noon and was in conference with the members of the board of public works at Manager Roseberry's office this afternoon. The object of the visit is to show that the water plant is worth $54,425, the price the water company wants, and what repairs would be necessary to make in case the city should buy the plant. It is understood that the water company will not take one dollar less than $54,425 unless the board of arbitrators, if one should be selected, says the plant is worth less. But the board of public works is unwilling to leave the matter to a board of arbitration.

NEW FACTORY FOR CITY.

Curnutt & Lloyd to Manufacture Lightning Rods—Expect to Employ Several Men.

John Z. Curnutt and Eldon W. Lloyd are building and assembling machinery in the upper floor of The Democrat-Forum building, preparatory to manufacturing soft copper cable lightning rods of practically straight wires. The conducting wires are not twisted together, which detracts greatly from their carrying capacity, and the top is made of one piece of metal, without a joint, and is provided with multiple points on the terminal, and is constructed so it has twice the carrying capacity of another top now manufactured.

The machinery that is required to build the cable will be one of the marvels of the lightning rod world. Each part must be placed at the right time, as the straight wires are placed in depressions and held in place, and in order to make this so the cable will be taken off by a capsom and not rolled over a drum, without regard to evenness, but will be the same size.

The system now has patents pending on it which will be on the market as soon as possible, but on account of the slowness of the assembling of the machinery it is not expected Messrs. Curnutt and Lloyd will put out much, if any, cable this summer. They expect to hire several men this fall.

SAME TEACHERS WERE SELECTED

D. M. Claggett of Westminster Presbyterian church officiating. The body was placed in the receiving vault at Mount Mora cemetery.

ASKED HELP FOR VOLCANO VICTIMS

Secretary of Treasury Notified of Need of Assistance.

GREAT DEVASTATION PROBABLE

Steady Shower of Ashes Has Been Falling Since Thursday—Difficult to Reach People in Danger.

Juneau, Alaska, June 11.—The governor's office has received the following cablegram from United States Commissioner Finnegan at Seward:

"Officers urgently request dispatch of cutters to Cold Bay, Iliamna, Kodiak and vicinity on account of volcanic disturbances. Great devastation probable."

The governor's office is endeavoring to reach the revenue cutters Manning and Tahoma through the Sitka wireless station, which is the most powerful station on the Pacific coast. So far communication has been impossible. It is believed, however, that both cutters have proceeded on a mission of relief. The secretary of the treasury was informed of the urgent need of assistance.

Chemists here, upon analyzing the volcanic ash which is descending all along the coast, say that it contains sulphuric acid. This explains the many compaints of headache.

Villages in Danger.

Seattle, Wash., June 11.—Definite news is anxiously awaited of conditions along the shores of Shelikof strait, where Katmai volcano has been spouting ashes and hot stones over the prosperous fishing villages and the agricultural land on Kodiak, Afognak and Raspberry islands.

Since the eruption begun Thursday afternoon there has been a constant hail of ashes and stones over a wide area, the finer particles having been carried by the wind as far as Sitka, 700 miles east of the volcano.

Communication Still Blocked

Dense clouds of smoke and ashes have turned day into night throughout a radius of 300 miles from Mount Katmai. The unnatural darkness and the stifling volcanic dust that fills the air combine to make navigation in the affected area hazardous and it will be difficult for rescuers to reach the fishermen and cannery employes along the shores of Shelikof strait while the volcano is in action.

In spite of the peril, the revenue cutter Manning already is groping her way toward the northwestern shore of Kodiak island. The Manning is equipped with wireless, but the atmospheric conditions impede communication.

ROOSEVELT WILL NOT GIVE UP

PLAN TO CONTINUE FIGHT FOR CONTESTED DELEGATES.

Struggle to be Carried Before Convention if Defeated by National Committee.

Chicago, June 11.—Here is the Roosevelt plan evolved by William Flinn of Pittsburg. It has been approved by all the members of the new steering committee which is here in charge of the Roosevelt ways and means and of which Flinn is chairman and Knox of Michigan is secretary.

Nothing will be conceded to the Taft forces. No matter what action the national committee may take the Roosevelt forces will insist that their contesting delegations be given seats in the convention hall. If the temporary roll of the national committee is accepted as the temporary roll of the convention it will not be until after a fight that will be worth watching.

But even defeat there and the Roosevelt leaders insist that they will not lose, but will win right off the reel, would not end the matter. Every contest that was brought before the national committee would be brought right back before the convention committee of credentials and fought out there. The Roosevelt forces believe that they can capture the committee on credentials and will bend every effort to do so. But if they cannot they will present a minority report in favor of all their delegates and try to stampede the convention to their claim. Only if they fail to do that will they withdraw from the convention as then constituted. They will not withdraw from the hall, but will go right ahead as though they had won the fight. They will name their permanent chairman, adopt their platform and nominate their national ticket which, unless some change should be necessary for strategic reasons, will be Roosevelt and Gov. Hiram Johnson of California.

Home Health Club

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER, LaPorte, Ind.

Night Sweats—Lately the Home Health club has had numerous applications for remedy for night sweats. This weakening annoyance is caused by the lack of vital force in the nerves of the skin, but it can be quickly stopped in a very simple way. The application of diluted acetic-acid to the skin is always safely cooling, besides, it brings increased activity and is altogether highly sanitary, properly used. In night sweats, however, there is far too much activity of the skin without aparent provocation. Hence the remedy must have other simple ingredients that will give new life and tone to the nerves underlying skin and premeating it; that will increase the general activity and prevent too rapid cooling. This result will be found in the simple combination of common table salt, cayenne pepper and vinegar. In the salt is the material that prevents the rapid evaporation of the vinegar and therefore prevents the unpleasant burning sensation that the pepper would induce. The pepper applied as will be here directed, is a tonic for the nerves, and in the acid is the cleaning, purifying agent that enables the pepper to penetrate the pores and scarf-skin in a manner to reach and stimulate the nerves as a tonic.

Take a tablespoonful of the salt, a teaspoonful of pulverized cayenne and a half pint of good vinegar. Mix these together in a half pint of boiling water. Let the mixture stand a few minutes then strain it so as to remove the granular substance of the pepper and with the liquid sponge the patient at bedtime.

Generally one treatment thus prescribed will stop the night sweats, but it is better for a more certain and effective cure to use the remedy for three or four more consecutive nights. The effect will be very gratifying.

Another simple and efficacious remedy for night sweats is to drink cold sage tea before retiring, using your own judgment as to strength and quantity. But the first named is more satisfactory and lasting.

Club Notes.

Batavia.—Dear Doctor: I have been troubled with my stomach for over two years. Am a farmer 28 years old; have good appetite, but stomach hurts for three hours after meals. Get very hungry and weak before the next meal. Stomach somewhat dilated at times, also constipated. R. C. W.

Some of the symptoms which you have described would indicate that the cause of your suffering is either worms or tapeworm. Would suggest that you fast for a couple of days and then take a good big dose of castor oil, then watch the stools for segment of tapeworm or ordinary round worms. If you will then write to me again stating just what you found to be the condition I will tell you what you should do to overcome either condition.

Kent.—Dear Doctor: I would like to ask you about eating eggs. They do not seem to agree with me. Have tried cooking them all sorts of ways, also raw with milk. I am inclined to constipation, if I get at all bilious. I feel after eating an egg as if all my nerves were tied up in knots and strained as hard as possible, then I have sick headache; sometimes the feeling does not come on for a day or two, and sometimes slightly after eating one egg, then if in a day or two I eat another it gets worse. When I eat deviled eggs they do not seem to disturb me. Do you supose there is any real reason why I cannot eat them? I like them, and they are so nourishing and convenient to use. I have been doctoring lately for kidney trouble, because my kidneys did not seem to eliminate properly; urine shows some uric acid crystals, but no sign of any other kidney trouble. I am 50 years old, unmarried, weigh 100 pounds, have fairly good appetite, but do not sleep very well; sallow complexion. MISS M. E. F.

Some persons cannot eat eggs, although some dietists claim that this condition is caused by idiosyncrasy only, but I am not inclined to agree with that opinion. I have seen cases in which people who have partaken of only a small particle of egg without their knowledge and the results have been very serious. The eggs seem to be veritable poison to some people.

I would suggst a milk, fruit and nut diet for a period of three months, after which you may be able to eat eggs with impunity. One dear old lady told me she did not have any impunity to eat with them. Possibly this difficulty will not appear to you.

While using fruit and milk diet you should also use an abundance of lemons and oranges. The acid of these fruits aid in digesting the milk.

I would suggest that you drink more water, sip it slowly, but do not drink anything while eating except milk, sipping it slowly also.

Signs of Trouble Over Temporary Chairman at Baltimore.

CLARK MEN WANT OLLIE JAMES

Friends of Other Candidates Believe Move First Step in Plan to Control Convention and May Unite in Opposition.

Washington, June 11.—Signs of impending storm blackened the Democratic horizon, following an announcement from national Clark headquarters that Speaker Clark's friends expect Ollie James, of Kentucky, United States senator-elect, an avowed Clark man, to be elected temporary chairman of the Baltimore convention. The election of James has been made the first step in the Clark program for controlling the convention.

Among opponents of Clark the plan to allow James to deliver the "keynote speech" is viewed as an attempt to show Clark's controlling strength at the very outset. A test on the point seems certain to be forced in the Democratic national committee, and possibly in the convention itself, between Clark's forces on the one hand and the supporters of all the remaining presidential candidates on the other hand.

To Combine Against James.

Hearing James had been put forward as the Clark candidate, the backers of Gov. Woodrow Wilson strongly expressed a preference for Senator James O'Gorman of New York. Thomas M. Owen, manager of the Underwood headquarters, and the supporters of Representative Underwood generally, refused to discuss the matter, but there is every prospect that the Wilson and Underwood people, together with the Harmon, Marshall and Baldwin elements, and the New York influence, will unite for O'Gorman against James.

Fred T. Dubois, manager of the national Clark headquarters, sponsored the statement that Clark favors James, and Dubois felt confident enough to add the prediction that a majority of the Democratic national committee will propose James' name to the convention.

Will Show Clark's Strength.

The committee has the function of tentatively choosing the temporary chairman, subject to the approval of the delegates in the convention. If the committee recommends James the action will be considered as demonstrating Clark's control of that body.

Reports are circulated that the New York delegation is likely to back Wilson, and it was noted that Daniels, McGraw and Saulsbury all are Wilson men. The Clark people now believe they are powerful enough to designate the temporary chairman.

FARM ADVISER IDEA SPREADS

Pettis County Bureau of Agriculture Attracts Attention of Farm Publications.

Sedalia, Mo., June 11.—S. M. Jordan, manager of the Pettis county bureau of agriculture, left to spend two days in Blackwater township and one day at Longwood township conducting neighborhood farmers' institutes.

Mr. Jordan has a letter from the Omaha Bee asking for particlars as to how the Pettis county bureau of agriculture was organized, and about the Fourth of July farmers' institute to be held at the state fair grounds. The Country Gentleman also writes for details regarding the Pettis county idea and numerous individuals have written Mr. Jordan commending him for arranging a sane celebration of the Fourth of July.

RAILROAD BONUS WORTHLESS

Kansas Line Never Built as Agreed, Court Says Notes Need Not be Paid.

Hays City, Kan., June 11.—In the suit from Logan county, tried here all of last week, of the Scott City & Winona railroad against the Bilby Brothers for $20,000 for notes given as a bonus for building the road through the county, the jury, after 24 hours, brought in a verdict for the Bilbys, declaring the notes worthless, as the railroad had not built the line as agreed.

French Crew Strikes.

Havre, June 11.—Firemen, trimmers and sailors on the big new steamer France struck just as the ship was about to sail for New York. The boat had been held to accommodate a New York man and while it was waiting the men decided to strike for an increase in wages. Their demands were refused and the sailing of the ship has been postponed.

PELLAGRA ON THE INCREASE

SPECIAL COMMISSION TO STUDY DISEASE IN SOUTH.

South Carolina Had 2,000 Cases Last Year—$15,000 Given for Research Work.

New York, June 11.—Equipped with a full field laboratory the Thompson-McFadden Pellagra commission will spend six months at Spartanburg, S. C., to study the puzzling disease which is increasing alarmingly in the Southern states.

An arrangement has also been made whereby patients will be brought to a hospital here throughout the summer for curative purposes and incidentally research work as to the course of treatment to which the disease best responds.

The personnel of the commission makes medical men await its report with the highest expectations. It includes Dr. Joseph F. Siler, captain medical corps, United States army, and Dr. Philip E. Garrison, past assistant surgeon, United States navy.

The expedition is made under the direction of the division of tropical medicines of the post-graduate laboratories.

The $15,000 necessary for expenses has been furnished by Col. Robert M. Thompson of this city, and John H. MacFadden of Philadelphia.

In South Carolina, last year, there were 2,000 cases of the disease reported, and there is every reason to believe that this number includes but a small percentage of the actual cases, due to the fact that reporting of cases is not compulsory upon physicians.

PROMOTER OF REBELLION HELD

Gonzales Enrile Arrested at El Paso for Embezzlement at Request of Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., June 11.—Gonzales Enrile, former chief promoter of the present revolution in Mexico and handler of its finances, was arrested here at the request of the Mexican government on a charge of embezzlement alleged to have been committed while he was consul under President Diaz at Clifton, Ariz.

Enrile was fleeing to the United States for medical treatment and was recognized and arrested in Juarez by Capt. Carlos Gonzales. He was taken before Col. Orozco, head of the garrison, who sentenced him to death. Gen. Orozco ordered his release. Gonzales was found dead later with a bullet in his brain. Friends declare he was killed by Enrile.

Enrile will be held here 40 days pending the arrival of extradition papers from the Mexican government.

SLATER, MO., AGAIN VOTES DRY

Last Town in Saline County to Vote on Local Option This Year.

Slater, Mo., June 11.—The result of the local option election held here gave a victory to the "drys" by a majority of 143. The total vote cast was 767, which is 128 more than that of four years ago, when the town went "dry" by a majority of 146.

Slater is the last city in Saline county to vote on local option this year, the county voting "dry" June 3 by a majority of 504. Marshall went "dry" by a majority of 85 June 6.

PLAN TO DEPOSE MAJ. GEN. WOOD

Conference Report on Army Appropriation Bill Passed.

MEANS HOT FIGHT BEFORE HOUSE

Outcome of Enforced Retirement of Adjt. Gen. Ainsworth—Senator Warren Involved in Graft Charges.

Washington, June 11.—The conference report on the army appropriation bill, constituting one of the most remarkable pieces of legislation ever proposed in congress, was adopted by the senate by a record vote of 27 to 24.

The report is yet to be acted upon by the house, where a terrific fight is scheduled to take place over its adoption. If it is approved, Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will be deprived of his position of chief of staff next March and no officer will be eligible to that appointment unless he has served ten years below the rank of brigadier general.

To Get Rid of Wood.

It is charged that the plan to get rid of Wood is the outcome of the row which resulted in the enforced retirement of Adjt. Gen. Ainsworth. Wood preferred charges of insubordination against Ainsworth, which were sustained by Secretary of War Stimson. Ainsworth was suspended and replied by retiring.

Ever since that time the friends of Ainsworth have been planning vengeance on Wood. Prominent among them has been Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee, and a member of the conference committee. To him is traced the origin of the provision relating to the chief of staff.

Charges Against Warren.

Other charges involve Senator Warren, whose son-in-law, Brig. Gen. John J. Pershing, now commanding the department of Mindanao, will be one of the small number of officials eligible to the position of chief of staff under the proposed restriction.

Senator Warren made no reply to these insinuations, except to say that he would be willing to vote for a resolution making Gen. Funston chief. The opponents of the proposition accepted this as a shrewd bluff, in-as-much as it could not be done.

Senator Warren was also instrumental in having the government purchase an expensive maneuver ground at Pole Mountain, Wyo., which is said to adjoin his sheep range. This was to be used for combined maneuvers of the regulars and militia, but the latter body is objecting to the plan on the ground that it will entail a useless expense of $20,000.

TO SETTLE ENGINEERS' STRIKE

Board of Arbitration Will Adjust Railroad Trouble on Eastern Roads.

Washington, June 11.—The board of arbitration to settle the differences between the railroads east of Chicago and their engineers which a few weeks ago threatened a serious strike, has been appointed by Chief Justice White, Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and Judge Knapp of the commerce court.

The board includes Oscar Strauss, former secretary of commerce and labor and P. H. Morrissey, former president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The issues affect 50 railroads, including the Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio, east of Chicago, and north of the Ohio river. About 25,000 engineers are directly concerned.

He left immediately for Chicago, where he will appear before the national committee in support of the Roosevelt delegates.

CHEERING IN THE COMMONS

Various Kinds of Applause That Are to be Heard in the British Lower House.

The giving of applause in the British house of commons has attained the dignity of a science. A cheer from a single member is not infrequent, but has little significance unless it comes from an important personage. It is cheering in chorus that constitutes the British demonstration.

The tone of the cheering varies according to the temper of those who cheer. First, there is the hearty, full-voiced cheer of genuine approval, resounding, awakening the echoes and full of encouragement.

Next comes the low, subdued cheer, gradually spreading along all the benches, indicating the deep-seated agreement that does not seek vociferous or hilarious expression. This is employed either on solemn occasions or in moments of pathos or in acknowledgment of some confession on the part of an opponent.

Ironical cheering is often heard in the commons. The tone of sarcasm is always unmistakable. Often it is the greeting accorded to an argument or a statement by an opponent, for the formal denying of which there may not be an opportunity. It is hostile but frequently good natured enough.

As an intensification of this there is the sarcastic cheer, far sharper and more incisive. Mingled with laughter, it is, from the British standpoint, as disconcerting to the speaker as anything may well be.

MAORI GETS BRAVERY MEDAL

Australian Prisoner Rewarded for Saving the Life of Trooper Who Had Arrested Him.

For the first time since its institution says the London Daily Graphic, the Albert medal has been awarded to a Maori for gallantry in saving life, and the circumstances connected with this heroic act are so extraordinary that they are worth giving in full.

The recipient of the medal is an aboriginal native of the Roper River, Australia, named Neighbour, and the story of his brave act is given in the London Gazette in the notice announcing that the king has conferred the medal upon him.

On February 1, 1911, Neighbour, who had been placed under arrest, was being conveyed to the Roper River police station by a trooper of the police force named Johns. The Wilton river, which was found to be in full flood, had to be crossed, and Johns, who was on horseback, and was holding in his hand the neck chain by which Neighbour was secured, set the prisoner to swim in front of him, while he followed.

The horse got into difficulties in mid-stream, and before the trooper could clear himself he was kicked in the face by the animal and carried off by the current. Neighbour, instead of using the opportunity of making his escape, went to Johns' assistance and brought him ashore with great difficulty and at the risk of his own life.

Didn't Get the Present.

When a three-year-old girl who lives in Twenty-fourth street was advised by her mother that the next day was the day to go to Sunday school, she opened her large, blue eyes wide and rather forlornly remarked, "Every Sunday when they call my name I say 'Bresent,' but they haven't given it to me yet."

In the same Sunday school, not long ago, Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall was teaching the Sunbeam class a lesson on King David, and, endeavoring to see how much of her instruction of the previous Sunday had not been lost, asked: "Who was our lesson about last Sunday?" No answer. "Don't you remember the handsome young man we talked about?" After a few moments one little hand went up.

"Well, Mary?" asked Mrs. Marshall.

"I don't remember his name," said Mary, "but he was the boy that killed the janitor."—Indianapolis News.

Saved the Cat's Life.

A cat that was sunning itself on a platform before a store in Barclay street suddenly arose, stretched and walked to the exact middle of the street, where it lay down on the wooden pavement, relates the New York Tribune. A truck came rapidly down the street, but the driver saw the sleeping animal and turned his team aside. The cat never so much as wiggled an ear. The first vehicle was followed by a second, the driver again avoiding a fatality. Several wagons passed and the cat still remained unscathed. Then a man who had been watching from the sidewalk, picked a banana peel out of the gutter and threw it at the cat, waking it up and sending it scurrying to a nearby doorstep. "A cat has only nine lives," the man said, "and eight wagons have barely missed running over it. I thought I had better save its last life before the next truck passed."

Cyclist Chased by Lions.

Two motor cyclists, Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, the former a magistrate at Mzimba, while returning from the Zomba (Central Africa) coronation ceremonies, were chased for five miles by two lions, which showed no fear of the noise made by the engines, and galloped after the motor cyclists with evident determination to kill them.

The lions were finally outdistanced, and the riders, suffering greatly from nervous strain, reached their home in safety.—Livingstonia News.

Sales of all classes of cattle were strong compared with last week's close. Quality was but ordinary, best steers reaching $8.75.

Hog receipts, 10,500. The asking of stronger prices proved of little avail and the best average the trade indicated was a steady basis with Saturday. At this writing top hogs sold at $7.80, but the clearance was late and prospects favorable for some holdovers.

Sheep receipts, 6,000. Receipts were too heavy to meet the existing demands. Barring a few strictly choice, light sheep and spring lambs which sold steady, market otherwise dull and 15c to 25c lower. Top springers, $8.75; best light sheep, $4.25.

WHEN WALKING WITH LADIES

Nearly Every Country Has Its Own Ideas as to Place of Male Escort.

Almost every country has its own fashions for men who walk with ladies on the public streets. In America and in England we walk on the side of the lady that is nearer the street. Many years ago when the streets were not kept as clean as they are now, any person walking on the outer edge of the pavements was likely to get well splashed with mud and rainwater, and that is why the gentlemen took that side, so as to save the ladies' fine clothes.

In some countries it is considered better for the gentleman to keep nearer the middle of the pavement in order to preserve the lady from jostling of persons going in the opposite direction in a crowded street. When it is the rule for every one to keep to the right those who are on the left of the two passing streams are continually being bumped into. In Germany the gentleman always keep on the same side of the lady, no matter which side of the street they may be on or which way they are going.

Money Value of Women.

If you are a married woman, and were asked to tell just what you were worth in hard cash to your husband, what figure would you name? The question is not a fanciful one by any means, but has been a subject of judicial consideration.

It was this way: The wife of an Iowa farmer bought a gallon of what purported to be kerosene, but which was afterward shown to be 21 per cent. gasoline. When the woman used some of it to start a fire with the stuff exploded, and she was burnt to death and her three children were seriously injured. The woman's husband sued the dealers for damages, and the jury awarded him $25 for the loss of his wife and $299.71 per child on account of injuries.

The defendants evidently thought that a woman was not worth $25, for they took an appeal from the verdict. The learned court, however, declined to look at it in that light, and the judgment was affirmed.—New York Mail.

How to Become a Neurasthenic.

Eat no breakfast. Indulge in but one meal daily; at any rate not more than two. Eat no meat. Eat freak cereals, vegetables, nuts and fruit. Masticate every morsel 268 times—267 times won't do. Take a cold bath every morning.

Be massaged daily. Read the health magazines daily. Read all the books on how to gain self-control and on psychotherapy. Concentrate the mind upon the digestion and upon all articles of diet. Upon every possible occasion discuss your imaginary troubles with your friends and coerce your wife into catering to every dietetic whim that you can formulate. Buy a lot of apparatus for indoor exercise and roll a cannon ball around over selected portions of one's anatomy.—Critic and Guide.
